

MARK ANDREWS serves as Chairman & President of KE Andrews with oversight of offices in the Dallas Metroplex, Denver and Houston that includes over 150 team members.

He has over 40 years' experience in the Ad Valorem Tax and Valuation fields with a predominate focus on the Energy Industry. He has been qualified as a valuation expert in numerous courts in the U.S. and Canada.

He is a licensed Senior Tax Consultant with the State of Texas as well as a Certified Senior Appraiser with the American Society of Appraisers. He routinely performs valuations for Banks, Mergers & Acquisitions, Purchase Price Allocations and Property Tax appeals. Assignments include tangible and intangible assets associated with Upstream, Midstream and Downstream Industries including the Unit Approach to Value.

Mark is a member of the Society of Depreciation Professionals and has provided Depreciation Studies and testified on both Regulated and Non-Regulated pipeline assets.

He is a Director of the Texas Taxpayers and Research Association and holds the position Chairman of the Board of HomeBank Texas.