

LINDA BLACKLOCK is the Manager of the Central Assessment Appraisal Program for the Oregon Department of Revenue. She has oversight of a team of appraisers that do the annual valuations of transportation, communication and energy companies for ad valorem taxation.

Linda has been in state and local government assessment for 29 years. She is currently serving her second term as a member of the Wichita Conference Planning Committee. The first term lasted 7 years.