

BRAULIA CHARRIS has recently relocated to Atlanta, Georgia from Norfolk, Virginia as the Manager of State Taxes with Norfolk Southern Corporation. She has been with the railroad since 2014 and will have her 5-year anniversary with the company next month. This will be Braulia's third year at the Wichita Ad Valorem Conference and hopes to gain new knowledge along the way. Being at this conference allows you to reconnect with familiar faces and also meet new ones.
