

PETER CROSSETT is a nationally renowned property tax attorney and consultant with over 29 years of litigation experience, Peter concentrates his practice on valuation, due diligence, and complex property tax litigation at the local and state levels, serving clients across industries such as renewable energy, integrated retail and generation, independent power production, equity funds, utilities, pipelines, refineries, mining, telecommunication, and rail transportation. He also provides valuation- and litigation consulting services with an emphasis on power-generation facilities and centrally assessed properties. Peter uses education, outreach, and negotiation to assist clients in dealing with their property tax issues and liabilities. He has successfully handled numerous property tax cases involving tens of millions in tax dollars and regularly appears before administrative tax courts and other state and federal trial and appellate courts. Peter has represented clients in matters across the country and appeared in actions in over 25 different states. He also provides due-diligence analysis and assists in post-closing issues for a variety of energy clients.

Bar Associations • New York State Bar Association • Onondaga County Bar Association