

JORDAN DILBA is the supervisor of the Utility Valuation Team at the Washington State Department of Revenue which annually assesses over 380 intercounty utility companies. Jordan graduated from the University of Victoria in 2008 with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and then began his appraisal career at BC Assessment in Vancouver, Canada working with residential properties. In 2011, he was awarded a Diploma in Urban Land Economics from the University of British Columbia. Jordan has worked with Washington State Department of Revenue's Property Tax Division since 2014, working with a variety of programs until being promoted to the Utility Team in 2016.