

YAN LIU has worked for the Union Pacific Railroad Company for the past fifteen years, from January 2004 to present. Yan is the Senior Manager – Property Taxes where she handles property taxes for an eight state region of Union Pacific’s 23 state operating system. Prior to joining Union Pacific, from 1998 to 2003, she held various accounting and tax related positions at Sprint in Overland Park, Kansas. She has a B.A. from Beijing University in China, and has a Master of Accountancy from the University of Missouri - Columbia. Yan resides in Omaha Nebraska.