

John Reed is the Sr. Director of Property Tax for Charter Communications, Inc. where he is responsible for company property tax matters across all lines of business in 41 states. He joined Charter in 2006. Prior to his present position he was Manager of Property Tax for The May Department Stores Company with responsibility for property tax matters primarily on the east coast.

John received his BS in Finance, cum laude, from Millikin University and is an active member of many national, state, and local professional organizations, including BTI, IPT, and WSATR.