

AMANDA RICHARDSON, CPA is a partner in the Tax Reporting & Advisory practice in Kansas City. She has extensive experience in public accounting providing services to a variety of businesses. She serves as the lead relationship ensuring all aspects of the engagement including quality, timely deliverable, and overall satisfaction with our services. Amanda has worked extensively on federal, state and international tax compliance work for her diverse clients spanning industries such as technology, manufacturing and transportation. She also serves a diverse group of public and private companies consulting on their ASC 740 income tax accounting including assistance with Tax Function Optimization “TFO”. Additionally, Amanda drives tax planning strategies including advice and modelling for various method changes, credits and studies. Most recently Amanda has spent time leading integrated service line offerings for her clients surrounding new law changes and standards such as ASC 842 leasing standards.

Amanda received a Bachelor of Science with degrees in both Finance and Accounting from the University of Kansas in Lawrence, KS.