

STEVEN P. SCHNEIDER is a partner in the Midwest law firm of Honigman LLP, and located in its Detroit office. He advises clients on property tax issues and litigates valuation cases for commercial, industrial, telecommunications, utility and energy property owners. In addition to property tax savings achieved for clients through settlement negotiations, his power plant clients have received property tax refunds in excess of $100 million through trials. One of these trials lasted over 150 days, another trial lasted over 30 days.

Mr. Schneider received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin, his M.S. in economics from the University of Illinois and his B.A. in economics from Marquette University. Mr. Schneider has also served on the Planning Committee for the Wichita Workshop.